

Alachua Stone Age Fair - January 26, 2008
Hosted by the Sunshine State Archaeological Society
Alachua Woman's Club - 14565 South Main Street

Preliminary Agenda

7:30AM – 9:00AM	Doors open for exhibitors to setup
9:00AM – 5:30PM	Doors open for general public; all exhibits open
5:30PM – 6:30PM	Remove all exhibits
10:00AM – 4:30PM	Flint knapping exhibit
1:00PM – 5:30PM	Presentations
1:00PM – 1:15PM	Bob Knight (SSAS) – welcome, introduction to SSAS, goals of society and ASAF, summary of presentations/presenters
1:15PM – 1:45PM	Harley and Ryan Means (FGS): “Importance of Amateurs for Florida Archaeology”
1:45PM – 2:15PM	Jim Dunbar (BAR): “The Pre-Clovis Occupation of Florida”
2:15PM – 2:45PM	Scott Mitchell (Silver River Museum): “An Overview of Prehistoric Technology in Florida”
2:45PM – 3:15PM	Barbara Purdy (UF Emerata): “Listen to the Stones and Bones”
3:15PM – 3:45PM	Tom Stafford, Jr. (Stafford Research Lab): “Timing of Clovis, Pre-Clovis Populations and Late Pleistocene Extinctions”
3:45PM – 4:15PM	Al Goodyear (SC Institute of Archaeology): “An Update on Recent Discoveries and Issues in Paleoamerican Research from the Carolinas to Florida”
4:15PM – 4:45PM	Mike Gramly (American Society for Amateur Archaeology): An Early Date for Cumberland at the Phil Stratton Site, KY
4:45PM – 5:30PM	General Discussion of papers
6:30PM – 8:30PM	Speakers’ Dinner at Conestogas Restaurant in Alachua

FIRST ANNUAL

